

THE workplace
ADVISORS

Solving your people challenges, so you can grow your business.

Claudia St. John, SHRM-SCP, SPHR is the Founder and CEO of The Workplace Advisors™, a leading HR consulting and training firm specializing in equipping businesses with the support and people skills they need to grow. She is an SPHR (Senior Professional in HR), SHRM-SCP (SHRM Senior Certified Professional), and Certified Professional Behavioral Analyst who empowers organizations with evidence-backed insights, so they can navigate the evolving landscape of talent acquisition, engagement, and retention with confidence and foresight. A frequent keynote speaker, Claudia is a regular media contributor on the topic of HR. Known as The Workplace Advisor™, she helps organizations zoom out, shift their mindset, and build businesses that lead their industry.

HR Support PLAN

Stay compliant, so you can free up your valuable time to focus on your team and your business. The HR Support Plan includes unlimited compliance consulting, unparalleled benefits, and members-only pricing on a full range of services.

Consulting

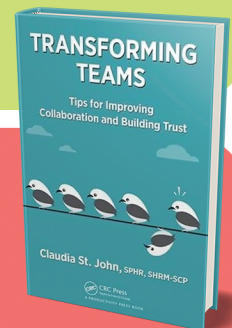

Whether you need support with recruitment, compliance, compensation, employee engagement, or professional development, get access to a dedicated HR support team to help steer your workforce initiatives.

Keynotes

Claudia St. John's talks work like real-time consulting from the stage. Crammed full of tactics that leaders can put into action when they return to the office, they will not only help you retain your existing employees, but save thousands of dollars on replacing lost talent. Discover what to do to tackle your most pressing people issues today, tomorrow, and always.

Book

Claudia's bestselling book, Transforming Teams is based on her real-world consulting experience helping companies resolve breakdowns in collaboration and trust. The book follows the challenges faced by a company CEO and her team as they address three central precepts.

Linnea Keen
TLMI President

"Thank you for all the insight you provide our members at our events and year round! We are grateful for the information you bring to our members and the ENERGY you bring to the stage. Your sessions are always a guaranteed hit!"